THE LATEST WAR REPORTS.

LONDON, Aug. 27 .- On Thursday evening the headquarters of the Pru-sian army were at Bar-le Duc. The advance reached a point about midway between Chalons and Epernay. The march on Paris was to be conducted leis urely by the Prassians, as no further opposition was anticipated. There is authority for saying that the fortifications of Paris, unless man ned by at least 300,000 men, are worthless. According to French reports Lunevill is so filled with Prussian wounded that 3 000 are left unsheltered in the streets.

Count Von Bismarck's son is more seriously been sent home to Mannheim.

Bataille, the French General who was so seriously wounded, is recovering rapidly. General Legrand who was killed at Grave lotte, left eleven daughters, for whom a national subscription has been started.

BERLIN, Aug. 27.-Reserves are organizing here under General Constein, and at Glogan, nnder General Lowenfield. Paris, Aug. 26 -midnight.-The following news is made public at the office of the Minister of the Interior : "The Prussians are pass ing through Nancy, going towards Chalons.

Prussian scouts cut the railway at Tamonilly, between Montmedy and Mezieres. This body was repulsed by French sharphonters and the railroad repaired again. The Prussians who were at Stenay, are now failing back upon Dan, several miles further South. NEW YORK, Aug. 27.—The following is a to the vigorous resistance made by the garrispecial to the Courier des Etats Unis. Paris Aug. 26 .- In spite of the orders given by the commanders of the enemy's army, the Prussian invasion of 1870 surpasses in horor the recollections of that of 1814. At the War Department, accounts are received from all sides of pillage, devastation and of summary executions, caused by the resistance of peasants to the invasion of their homes.

The Prussians concede to them no rights of defence. The Uhlans above all commit depredations worthy of the cossaeks of other days.

Little is said about the Emperor and with good reason. Deeds, not recriminations are necessary. It will be time enough hereafter to demand an account from him who was the origin of our first disasters. The Empress shows the most noble devotion to the wounded. Every day she visits the military hospitals and extends care and consolation to the victims of the war. All ladies of rank and high in social standing imitate her example. There are unfortunately, some exceptions to this noble con-

The system of Prussian espoinage has even stolen icto some of the churches and sicred places, where it would scarcely be possible to discover or prevent it. One or two examples have been made, which will probably put an end to this secret connivance with the enemy.

In answer to the dispatch you addressed to me I reply that it is untrue that all the Germans have been expelled from Paris. A great number left voluntarily before the opening of hostilities, since which only one hundred or so Germans, suspected of conveying intelligence to the enemy have been expelled. That is all.

Our young garde mobile is performing pro they have made a number of successful sorties. Thiers, to whose foresight we are indebted for the fortifications of Paris, refuses obstinate ly to act on the Committee of Defence. Count Daru accepted, this morning, this difficult office. given. McMahon, whose effective force numbers 135,000 men, extends his line from the Valley of the Aisne to the frontier of Luxembourg, his center resting at Ardennes. Bazaine has about 90,000 men at Metz. The part of Me Mahon will be to hold himself between Paris and Metz and in readiness to march to the relief of the place most threatened.

King William and Prince Frederics Charles, leaving Steinmetz to attend to Bazaine at Metz, have gone with fresh troops to reinforce the Crown Prince, who is advancing on Paris, by the Valleys of Marne and the Aube.

LONDON, Aug. 27 .- Bourges, the capital city of the Department of Cher, is fortifying. It is said the Emperor and the members of the Senate and Corps Legislatif will go thither. The right wing of the French army has already taken that direction.

The Russian Minister has returned to St. Petersburg from a visit to Vienna. The object of his visit was to express on the part of Russia a strong desire to improve their relations with Austria Austria reciprocates, and is anxious to contribute to its fulfillment. Paris, Aug. 27.-The King and Clown

Prince are moving on the city by way of Marne and Aube. They commit fearful pillage and unheard of outrages as they move along. LONDON, Aug. 27 .- The movement in aid of the French and German wounded has become universal in England. The ratifications of the treaty for guarantecing neutrality for Belgium have been interchanged here by the representatives of various European powers. A junction of Bazaine with McMahon has not yet been effected.

The Prince Royal of Prussia has issued a proclamation to the people of France, wherein he says:-"Prussia makes war against the Emperor and not the people of France. The people have nothing whatever to fear. The Prince announces his purpose to instantly restore the lines of travel which have been interrupted or destroyed by army movements, so that labor and commerce may everywhere be resumed." All of the French officials have been requested to remain at their posts, and their personal safety is guaranteed.

The Prince further says only surplus food will be taken for the German troops, that only which is not required by the peaceful French. The Hessians, according to French accounts, are again distinguishing themselves by their traditional pillage and brutality. It is predicted here that terms for peace between France and Prussia will embrace the disregarding the market regulation. BANKRUPTCY.

Congress having just amended the Bankrupt law so that nearly all parties can be discharged from their debts unobstructed by the lifty per cent clause, so called, another opportunity offers to secure the benefits of this most effective and permanent measure of rollef. The above-named will make bankrupt business a specialty; will procure discharges on the most moderate terms, and transact all business in that line at prices which cannot fail to be satisfactory. Being U. S. Commissioner, he will endeaver to visit the different counties on court days, and thus save parties the trouble and expense of several trips to Alexandria in beginning and proceeding with their cases. Discharges can be obtained here before Register Hillas promptly as in Richmond or elsewhere, and at much less expense to parties It may be added that the Bankrupt act, in connection with the Homestead exemption, which it is now believed will be secured to the bankrupt under the bankrupt law, is the only real relief now offered to parties struggling in the hopeless bondage of old debts. BUILDING ASSOCIATION .- The remarkable success which has attended the German Build ing Association in the first years of its existence has induced some of our citizens to start a similar enterprise. We hear that a meeting will soon be held under the auspices of well known gentlemen of business character and enterprise, for the purpose of organizing a new association upon a plan similar to that adopted by the German organization. But for the war the Mechanical and the Potomac building associations would have proven decided suceesses. The other building association which
